THE NEW YORK LATIN LEAFLET

EASTERN DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL, BROOKLYN
 ERNEST RIESS, De W C High School, Manhattan, Editor
 DAVID H HOLMES, E D High School, Brooklyn, Manager
 Printed by the ROEHR PUBLISHING CO., 35 Myrtle Ave., B'klyn, N Y

Published weekly during the school year by The New York Latin Club.

The entire expense of publication is met by the advertisements, so that every penny of every subscription goes into the Scholarship Fund. The subscription price is 25 cents a year. The advertising rates are twenty-five ($25) dollars an inch, a year.

All communications concerning The Leaflet should be addressed to The Latin Leaflet, Eastern District High School, Driggs Ave and So 3d St, Brooklyn. Subscriptions to The Leaflet should be sent to the same address. Communications requiring answers should contain return postage.

The internal purpose of this publication is to provide a Clearing House for secondary classical teachers in New York and vicinity or anywhere else; to afford an opportunity to younger classical scholars anywhere for the publication of their more modest endeavors along the line of original work, which might not otherwise see the light; to stimulate the teaching and quicken the student activity in the classical work in the high schools of Greater New York. The external purpose is to establish one or more College-entrance-scholarships for the most successful graduates from high schools in New York City, to be awarded on a competitive examination. The proceeds over and above expenses will be devoted to a scholarship fund. The labor involved is a labor of love.

Four Important Features

The New York High School College Entrance Scholarship which is now being established is to be absolutely democratic.

1 It will be open to all New York high school graduates alike, boys or girls, on a competitive examination.

2 It will be open to all departments alike, no department ranking higher in importance than any other.

3 It will lead to all schools alike, liberal, professional or technical, within the choice of the winner.

4 It is being contributed to by all kinds of friends of education alike, without reference to politics, race or religion.

CORRESPONDENCE INVITED

Chicago and New York.

To Latin Teachers:

We have heard teachers say in speaking of Latin prose composition texts, "If it were not so out-of-date I should like to introduce the Jones again."
 They are usually surprised to learn that the sales (practically unsolicited) of this book are

Greater Now than ever Before since it became our property, and are steadily increasing. Yet the book is twenty-five years old.

 A few years ago it gave way somewhat to the connected narrative idea, but does not this indicate that the pendulum is swinging back?

If you are interested, we shall be glad to send you a copy of the Revised Edition.

Very cordially yours,

SCOTT, FORESMAN & COMPANY.

TUELL AND FOWLER'S FIRST BOOK IN LATIN

"I prefer it to any other beginner's Book."

"I have used it for six years and like it better every year."

Thus write teachers from two Boston High schools in which more than 1,000 students use the Book.

The revised 1904 Edition is ready.
